ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above the President, A.P. Minority Employees Welfare Association, Hyderabad has represented that Smt. Shaik Pyarijan Begum, Work Inspector Grade-II, Sub-division, Devarapalli expired in a bus accident on 01-01-2001 and the legal heir daughter Sk.Nayla Begum applied for compassionate appointment on 8-9-2001 in terms of G.O.Ms.No.612,General Administration (Ser.A) Department, dated 30-10-1981 and requested for providing employment to her under compassionate grounds.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the Engineer-in-Chief (IW), Irrigation and CAD Department, Hyderabad was requested to direct the applicant to obtain and produce a declaration from the competent court of law to the effect that the applicant is the adopted daughter of the deceased employee, for taking further action in the matter.

3. In the reference 4th read above, the request of the applicant for appointment under compassionate grounds was rejected on the ground that as the adoption had not taken place legally and the same was not registered and also the Mohammadan Law does not recognize the adoption as a mode of filiations. As such, adoption deed have no value.

4. Sri Shaik Shahid Hussain Ali, adopted son of late Smt. Shaik Pyarijan Begum, Work Inspector Grade –II, RRP Sub-Division, Devarapalli, Visakhapatnam, in his representation 5th read above, has represented that, late Smt. Shaik Pyarijan Begum, deceased Work Inspector has adopted him and his sister Shaik Nayla Begum in the year 1991. The adoption took place before Notary legally with mutual consent. Later, in the year 2001 Smt Shaik Pyarijan Begum mother of the applicant met with bus accident and died instantly. After her sudden demise, Shaik Nayla Begum, who was elder then has applied for job on compassionate grounds as per G.O.Ms. No.612, General Administration (Ser.A) Department, dt.30-11-1991. But, the same was rejected. In the meanwhile his sister grown up and attained the age of marriage and their wisemen fixed her marriage as a grownup girl can not be retain at home for a long time without marriage. At this juncture, his sister Shaik Nayle Begum has decided to shed her claim over the job and given No Objection letter to the Department for considering his appointment on compassionate grounds being the son of the deceased. The local Court has also settled the accident claim and recognized them as legal heirs of the deceased. Hence, he has once again requested to consider his case for compassionate appointment by relaxing the condition of obtaining declaration from the court in view of the delay at the court and issue orders for appointment as a special case on humanitarian grounds.

5. Keeping in view of the above exceptional and peculiar facts and circumstances of the case Government after careful re-examination of the entire issue it has been decided to consider the request of Sri Shaik Shahid Hussain Ali adopted son of late Smt. Shaik Pyarijan Begum, Work Inspector Grade-II, RRP Sub Division, Devarapalli, Visakhapatnam for providing compassionate appointment in terms of G.O.Ms.No.612, General Administration (Ser.A) Department, dt.30-11-1991 in relaxation of the condition of obtaining declaration from the competent court of law to the effect that the applicant is the legal adopted son of the deceased employee, as a special case on humanitarian grounds.

6. Accordingly, the Engineer-in-Chief(IW), Irrigation and CAD Department, Hyderabad, is directed to provide compassionate appointment to the above applicant in terms of the above said G.O, in available vacancy under the control of Superintending Engineer, Irrigation Circle, Visakhapatnam as per his eligibility and suitability etc.
